La Campagnola

PIZZERIA E TRATTORIA DEI FRATELLI GROSSI

What unites us is the pride of our roots, so together we have decided to create something that represent what really means to be a treu Neapolitan.

Welcome to La Campagnola

Misericordiella

9€

Stuffed crust with ricotta cheese and black pepper, Neapolitan broccoli rabe, smoked mozzarella cheese, monaco provolone cheese.

Near La Campagnola you can find a little gem of Naples: the Misericordiella Church. When you enter it may seem an ordinary church but when you arrive to the altar, turn left and walk down a couple of stairs you can find an entire underground church.

A black and white photograph of a statue of San Gennaro, showing his face and the top of his mitre.

San Gennà

Duomo

7 minutes walk

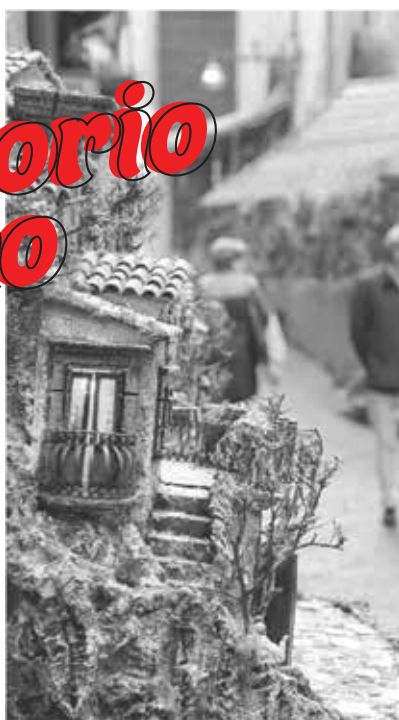

Naples Cathedral or San Gennaro Cathedral is the center of the catholic church of Naples, where people worship San Gennaro and his treasure. The jewels of the San Gennaro Treasure are invaluable pieces of art realized by expert goldsmiths. Among the Threasure the most famous pieces: the Necklace of San Gennaro, the Mitre of silver gold, The Mantle of San Gennaro and the Golden Goblet.

San Gregorio Armeno

12 minute walk

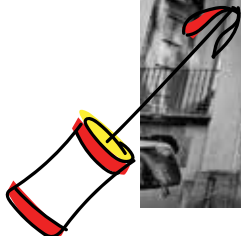

Located in the heart of Naples between via dei Tribunali and the famous Spaccanapoli, San Gregorio Armeno is one of the most known street of Naples. Walking around San Gregorio Armeno means to live the Christmas athmosphere all year round because of little shops where master craftsmen create statuettes that represent characters from the Presepe but also politicians, athletes and VIPs.

Palazzo dello Spagnuolo

2 Minuti a piedi

The palace is named after Tomaso Atienza, most known as The Spanish, who bought it in 1813 and rebuilt it, widening the right side and repainted the ceilings.

In 1925, after the King Umberto di Savoia visit, the building was declared national monument. It occupies an important part in the storic and cultural heritage of Naples, especially for his neapolitan baroque architecture. The majestic stairs is what makes it really unique.
